

MEETING MY GOALS

Remember that the best way to meet your individual goal for your Girl Scout product sale is to take it step by step. Check off ✓ each important step as you make it.

I know all the important information about the products I am selling...what varieties, how much they cost and when I will be delivering them to my customers.

I have reviewed the safety tips and the selling tips and I am ready to begin selling!

Here is my short list of people I can try to sell to:

I have set MY PERSONAL GOAL for the sale.

I want to sell _____ products to help my group meet our goal.

I know the important dates of our sale...when to begin, when to pick up and deliver the products and when to turn in the money collected.
