

Have An ATTITUDE of Gratitude!

Things may not always go the way you hope they will. But part of the secret to being a happy person is appreciating what you DO have and all the little things that make life interesting and special. List here all the things for which you are thankful.